

THE COMPOSER IS DEAD!

(According to Lemony Snicket)

Who murdered the Composer?

The death is suspicious and the Inspector is certain that the culprit lurks among the orchestra members. And, worse still, it appears that ○ LEMONY SNICKET WILL BE VISITING KIDSBOOKS AGAIN!

- Lemony's newest book is a witty murder mystery set at the symphony in a story based on his collaboration with award-winning composer Nathaniel Stookey and aptly entitled The Composer is Dead...
- Please join us on this special occasion when Lemony will be here to sign his books and meet his adoring (and delusional) fans.

○ Tuesday March 17 at 6:30 pm.

○ venue: Kidsbooks on Broadway

♪ Please note: This is a signing event only!

Each person or family (maximum of 3 people) who would like to attend the signing must have a snicketticket. The ticket is free with the purchase of one of Lemony's books from Kidsbooks for this event. The tickets will be numbered to stagger the wait in the lineup (approx 3-4 hours total). Please note that for each ticket, one Snicket book can be personalized and signed in order to give everyone an opportunity to have a short chat one on one with Lemony. There are limited tickets available so come and get yours before they are all gone! For more information, call us at 604-738-5335 or email snicket@kidsbooks.ca
